

BUSINESS AFFAIRS INTERNSHIP

Hailstorm Overview:

Hailstorm's mission is to provide a modern, strategic, on demand Business Affairs resource, focused solely on creative problem solving and driving brand successes. We partner with advertising agencies across the US and work directly with brands like Amazon, Google and Pinterest. We are committed to elevating the practice of business affairs and continuously modernizing the way we work.

Internship Overview:

Our dynamic 10-week summer internship program provides interns with a hands-on opportunity to gain invaluable experience within the creative industry of marketing and advertising. During the internship program, Interns will be integrated into client campaigns, providing day-to-day support to the teams, and will be assigned an "Intern project" to be presented at the internship's conclusion. Interns will gain a deep understanding of the Business Affairs role, how it is incorporated into various companies and what it takes to be successful in the career.
